BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT
Long Range Projections

Explanation of Major Changes

Major changes shown on Schedule 22 reflect the inclusion in the current projection of programmed amounts consistent with the budget estimates for fiscal year 1965. The increasing differences that develop between the financial plans furnished by the Bureau of the Budget and the current financial plan of this Bureau reflect basic differences in the rates of acceleration for BIM's programs, especially soil and moisture conservation and construction items. It is notable in this regard that the current financial plan falls considerably behind the announced long range program of this Bureau entitled "Program for the Public Lands and Resources" which was issued in May 1962.

Major changes shown in the expenditure estimates reflect the expenditures that would result from the changes shown in new obligational authority. The current projection of end-year employment, while showing increases, reflects a much slower rate of expansion than that included in the financial plan as it is believed that the Bureau can handle increases in program with smaller increments of manpower than the current level of Bureau operations.

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

The Bureau of Land Management is responsible for the conservation, management and development of some 465 million acres of the Nation's public lands. This includes some 289 million acres of other federally owned lands, which are located in Alaska.

In addition, the Bureau administers mining and mineral leasing on other federally owned lands, on former Federal lands where minerals have been reserved in public ownership, and on the submerged lands of the Outer Continental Shelf.

The work of the Bureau produces revenue from various sources which is distributed as follows:

(In millions of dollars)

PROGRAM AND PERFORMANCE

Management of Lands and Resources

1. Lease and disposal of lands and mineral resources. - Applications are acted upon for all types of land use and for lease of mineral resources, principally oil and gas. A comprehensive inventory of land resources and field investigations are made in order to determine the best use of the resources and classify the lands accordingly. General information is disseminated to the public, including information contained in the land records which are being modernized. The increase in 1965 will provide for participation in comprehensive river basin planning, continuation of the comprehensive inventory of land and mineral resources and improved records service to the public.
2. Management of grazing lands. - The 178 million acres of public lands available for grazing which are used by approximately 29,000 stockmen are managed and protected. Proper management of these lands provides protection from fire, erosion, overuse, unseasonal use and trespass, thereby perpetuating forage resources. The increase in 1965 will accelerate the conduct of resource inventories and the adjudication of grazing privileges and will increase attention to multiple-use management of the public lands, including the management of wildlife habitat.
3. Forestry. - A total 46 million acres of commercial forest lands and 111 million acres of woodland-type lands are managed. The 1965 program includes the sale of 1.355 billion board feet of timber for anticipated receipts of $36.4 million. The increase in 1965 will provide for increased sales, improved management, and accelerated reforestation.
4. Cadastral surveys. - Surveys are performed to: locate and identify legal boundaries of lands under application for lease or disposal, including submerged lands on the Outer Continental Shelf; assist in the management of forest and range lands; provide legal descriptions needed by other Federal agencies; and to permit States to obtain title to lands granted them by law. The increase in 1965 will initiate a realistic program of monument restoration for the Forest Service.

5. Soil and moisture conservation. - Public lands in critical condition from erosion are conserved and rehabilitated and restored to productivity. Areas infested by halogeton, medusahead and other noxious weeds are treated. Cooperative programs will continue with other agencies in river areas. The increase in 1965 is to provide for third year requirements of the special projects initiated in 1963 and second year requirements of those initiated in 1964. Acceleration of other resource areas plus additional rehabilitation funds for burned-over areas are also provided.
6. Fire suppression. - Fires are fought on or threatening lands under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Land Management. Based on average fire costs for the past five years, an increase of $2.3 million will provide fire suppression funds with regularly appropriated funds. During the first three months of the current fiscal year, over 124,000 acres were burned and costs of suppression approximated $2.1 million. A supplemental appropriation for 1964 is anticipated for separate transmittal.
7. Maintenance of physical facilities. - Physical maintenance is provided for about 350 structures used as storehouses, equipment shelters, fire crew barracks and similar purposes. The increase in 1965 will provide for increasing costs of current and deferred maintenance and for maintenance requirements resulting from construction of additional facilities including protection and sanitation facilities.
8. Maintenance of access roads. - Maintenance is provided for access roads on Coos Bay Wagon Road grant lands and on the public lands. The increase in 1965 will provide for the acceleration of repair work to restore roads to usable condition. Preventive as well as corrective maintenance will be performed.
9. General administration. - Executive direction is provided and services such as accounting, personnel administration, procurement, budgeting, management analysis, and internal auditing are performed in support of the programs of the Bureau. The increase in 1965 will provide for expansion in administrative support of substantially enlarged resource management programs and for augmented programs to improve manpower and fund utilization.

Payments to States from receipts under Mineral Leasing Act. -- Alaska is paid 90% and other States 37½% of the receipts from bonuses, royalties, and rentals resulting from development of mineral resources under the Mineral Leasing Act (30 U.S.C. 191), and from leases of potash deposits (30 U.S.C. 285), on public lands.
12. Payments to Counties, National Grasslands. -- Of the revenues received from the use of submarginal lands, 25% is paid to the counties in which such land is situated, for school and road purposes (7 U.S.C. 1012).
